

Silberline Receives Best Green Supplier Award at Green Industrial Coating Asia 2012

November 20, 2012

Silberline China was recently honored as the Best Green Supplier at the 5th annual Green Industrial Coating Asia 2012 Seminar held October 23-24, 2012 in Shanghai. This event honors academic research institutes and companies from around the world who develop environmentally friendly coating systems, including pigments and binding systems. Silberline's Jessie Xiao [second from right in image below] was on hand to receive the award on behalf of Silberline China.
